“Building Our Community One Family at a Time”

B.O.O.M.'s Leadership Network is a growing network of ministries partnering together to bring healing to the hearts and minds of the people. This is a network of encouragement among leaders to continue to remain relevant and flowing in the power of God. We Offer leadership training, accountability and networking opportunities.

BOOM will exercise no ecclesiastical, governmental or administrative control over any of its member ministries. BOOM provides counsel and oversight at the request of the member ministry. Every service and benefit is optional and are adaptable to fit the specific need of each ministry. We are here to help strengthen you in any area that you need upon your request. Membership in BOOM's Leadership Network is open to men and women who are Pastors who head a viable functional independent ministry. You can be a part of this network in addition to your current association. BOOM does not discriminate against any race, ethnic or denominational background.
